

SLO Assessment: Where Do We Go from Here?
Part of Flex Day, April 19, 2013
Brian Thiebaut

1. Courses offered Spring Semester 2013 that were not previously assessed, need to be assessed. Breakout session Flex Day to identify two (2) SLOs per course and to decide on assessment methods and engage in dialogue

The institution identifies student learning outcomes for courses, programs, certificates, and degrees; assesses student achievement of those outcomes; and uses assessment results to make improvements (II.A.1.c)

2. General education (GE) programs need to be assessed: AS General Education (Option A); CSU-GE (Option B); IGETC (Option C)
3. How to make assessment results “available to appropriate constituencies”?

The institution engages in ongoing, systematic evaluation and integrated planning to assure currency and measure achievement of its stated student learning outcomes for courses, certificates, programs including general and vocational education, and degrees. The institution systematically strives to improve those outcomes and makes the results available to appropriate constituencies (II.A.2.f)

4. SLO evaluations in faculty performance evaluations

Faculty and others responsible for student progress toward achieving stated student learning outcomes have, as a component of their evaluation, effectiveness in producing those outcomes. (III.A.1.c)
