

Visitors on Campus

Children

Unattended and/or disruptive infants, toddlers, and children are prohibited.

Loitering

Individuals coming onto District property must identify themselves on request and must abide by all District regulations. The Superintendent/President may withdraw the visitation privilege for any individual or group at any time.

Solicitation

Persons not connected with approved college organizations shall not be permitted to solicit funds, conduct sales, or post advertising on District property. Exceptions may be made by the Superintendent/President. Any approved solicitation shall not interfere with employees' duties or the instructional program.

Distribution of Materials

Off-campus individuals or groups must have prior approval from the District before they may distribute any type of material, printed or otherwise, on campus. The Superintendent/President shall limit the areas and time when such distribution may be made, and such distribution must not interfere in any way with college activities.

Advertising

The same policy as established for the Distribution of Materials shall be in effect for advertising.

Speakers

Any off-campus individual or group wishing to sponsor a speaker on campus may do so only through a recognized student or staff organization. The speaker must comply with all requirements for off-campus individuals.

The Superintendent/President or designee is assigned the authority to implement this policy, including the calling of civil officials, if necessary.

The Board of Trustees shall serve as an appeal body for any person who wishes to express a complaint as a result of the enforcement of this policy.
