

Remedial Coursework

Reference: Title 5, Section 55756.5

In accordance with Title 5 regulations, Palo Verde College limits those units a student may be assigned in remedial courses to thirty (30) semester units. "Remedial Coursework" refers to pre-collegiate basic skills courses which include reading, writing, computation, learning skills, study skills, and English as a Second Language. These courses are designed to ensure acquisition of those skills necessary for successful completion of Associate degrees, transfer, and occupational courses. All remedial courses taken by students enrolled in English as a Second Language courses and students identified by the District for learning disabled programs are exempted.
