

Student Workers

Reference: Education Code Section 69960(f), 88003

Palo Verde College Board of Trustees may from time to time employ students on a part-time basis subject to the availability of non-district or district funds. Palo Verde College students are eligible for student employment. The conditions of student employment shall be described in Administrative Procedure 7270.

The administrative procedure shall specify the conditions for student employment under federal guidelines, state categorical program guidelines and district-funded student employment. These conditions shall include the qualifications for the specific program, the maximum hours of work, the required academic standard, and audit procedures to continue employment.

See Administrative Procedure 7270
