Fingerprinting

Reference: Education Code Sections 87013, 88024

No person shall be employed by Palo Verde Community College District in any position until the person has been fingerprinted by a law enforcement agency before start date of employment. Student workers are exempt except while working with minor children or disabled adults.

Fingerprints will be forwarded to the Department of Justice of California criminal convictions and arrests. A Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) check is mandatory for some new background investigations submitted after January 1, 1999.

Cost of required fingerprinting will be reimbursed by the District for all personnel.
