What's Going On?

<<The first Home game of the season for the Men's Basketball team on November 1st had a great turnout. Our Pirate's played hard, but experienced a tough loss. We wish the best of luck for them on their journey to victory. Go Pirates!

Special Education Day

December 2nd we recognize changes in federal legislation that led to the nations first federal special education law.

<<A few creations from our 3D printing classes here on campus! Interested? Enroll for the Spring Semester!

Rosa Parks Day

December 1st we recognize American Civil Rights hero. December 1st 1955 was the day that Rosa Parks didn't give up her seat on a Montgomery City bus and what followed made Civil Rights history.

National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day

December 7th honors all those who lost their lives when Japan attacked Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. More than 3,500 Americans lost their lives or were wounded on that solemn day.

Human Rights Day

December 10th annually seeks to honor the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR).

December is
