WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH started in a farming community like Blythe. In Sonoma, CA, a school district held festivities in honor of International Women's Day 1978. Other schools started doing essays and having parades. Congress eventually made March officially Women's History Month in 1987.

Think about the wonderful women in our lives. Those from the past such as ROSA PARKS and SUSAN B. ANTHONY were champions of the people's rights.

The youngest Nobel Peace Prize winner, MALALA YOUSAFZAI, campaigned for women's education rights in Pakistan was shot and survived. She started a charity to help more girls gain an education.

WANGARI MAATHAI was the first woman in central and east Africa to earn a doctorate degree. She also helped inspire the Great Green Wall initiative in Africa to support life and prevent the corrosion of their beautiful environment.

PIRATES CHEST FOOD DISTRIBUTION

On February 19th we had 91 families come and participate in the Pirates Chest Distribution.
