Finals Study Tips

Finals week can be the most stressful time for a student, whether in high school, college or graduate school. Ensure you're prepared for your exams with these study tips, which can help you conquer your finals. Follow this list as finals week approaches (the earlier you prep, the better) so you can ace your exams from start to finish:

1. Create your own study guide.
2. Ask questions.
3. Attend the review session
4. Start early
5. Organize a group study session
6. Study things not on the study guide.
7. Take breaks.
8. Stay well-rested
9. Prioritize your study time.
10. Make it fun.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a federal holiday in the United States for remembering and honoring persons who have died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. The holiday, which is currently observed every year on the last Monday of May, was most recently held on May 28, 2018. Memorial Day was previously observed on May 30 from 1868 to 1970.

National Cancer Research Month

May is National Cancer Research Month. Please join the American Association for Cancer Research (AACR) in support of this global awareness campaign highlighting the importance of cancer research. Thanks to spectacular advances in cancer research, more than 16.9 million people in the United States and millions worldwide are cancer survivors who are living
