For office use only:

Attached is a copy of acceptable documentation of high school completion as marked below:

High School Diploma

- High school diploma
- Final official (sealed) high school transcript that shows the date that the diploma was awarded

High School Diploma Equivalent

- General Education Development (GED) Certificate
- State certificate received after the student has passed a State-authorized examination that is recognized as the equivalent of a high school diploma
- Official, sealed academic transcript that shows completion of at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree
- Documentation from the high school that the student excelled academically in high school and documentation from the college that the student has met the formalized, written policies for admitting students without high school diplomas

Homeschool

- Transcripts or equivalent signed by the parent or guardian, that lists the courses completed by the applicant and documents the successful completion of a high school education
- Secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than high school diploma, or its recognized equivalent) provided for under state law

Important Notes:

- * Do Not make corrections to your FAFSA or Admission Application after turning in this form
- * Your financial assistance eligibility will not be determined until all forms listed under "required documents by year" in Web Advisor are received (or waived and reviewed for accuracy).
- * Per Federal regulations, you may not receive grants and loans at two separate institutions

Warning: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this form, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.

All applications for financial assistance programs (i.e., student loans, work compensations, grants, scholarship, special funds, subsidies, prizes, etc.), will be considered by the Palo Verde Community College District without regard to ethnic group identification, national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, color, ancestry, genetic information, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, or any characteristics listed or defined in section 11135 of the Government Code or any characteristic that is contained in the prohibition of hate crimes set forth in subdivision (1) of section 442.6 of the California Penal Code, or any other status protected by law.
