3. Financial Aid disbursements will be issued from your home college Financial Aid office for eligible courses taken at Palo Verde College.

2. A delay in eligibility determination.
3. A delay in disbursement.

When completing your Financial Aid file, it is important to understand the following information about your declared program of study (major):

1. Students who declare an “undecided” program of study WILL NOT be eligible to receive most forms of Federal, State and Institutional financial assistance.
2. All students must have only one active and accurate program of study declared with Admission and records; please refer to your college catalog for information on the programs of study available at your home college.
3. Your chosen program of study will influence your Satisfactory Academic Progress Standard calculation, which can impact the amount of units for which are eligible to receive financial assistance at your home college.
4. If you are unsure what your program of study is, please meet with an academic counselor at your home college.

Important Notes:

- Do not make corrections to the FAFSA or Admission Application after turning in this form.
