

Fundamentals of Construction, COP

The Fundamentals of Construction Certificate Program addresses common skills necessary in the construction trades. This includes coursework focusing on maintaining and servicing residential electrical systems as well as plumbing. This certificate program explores construction techniques that involve assembling projects from many different arrays of materials from brick to concrete.

Requirements: 12 Units

Course	Title	Units
BCT102	Advanced Framing Techniques	3
BCT112	Basic Electricity	3
BCT113	Basic Plumbing	3
BCT212	Masonry Construction	3

Total Required Units: 12